projects including flood control and drainage primarily rests with the respective State Government. The completion of the projects depends, inter-alia, upon the adequacy of funds to be made available for the projects by the respective State Governments. The Centre has launched Accelerated Irrigation Benefits Programme (AIBP) since 1996-97 for providing Central Loan Assistance (CLA) for completion of those irrigation projects which are in advance stage of completion or mega projects which are beyond the resources capability of the States.
